

Geography Y7

Term	1	2	3	4	5	6
Topic	WHAT IS GEOGRAPHY?	MAPS AND MAPPING	EXPLORING ENGLAND	EXPLORING ENGLAND	RIVERS	TOURISM as a Tertiary Industry. ROCKS AND SOIL
Detail	What are the different types of Geography? Geography in the News Geography around the Astor College.	Using OS Mapskills to investigate places How can Atlases help us find out about places? Local Area Study with Digimap	Places to Visit Population/ Migration Economic Activity Weather And Climate	London and regeneration via 2012 Olympics	The features of the water cycle and drainage basin. How landforms are created through river processes. River flooding and its impact on people.	What is tourism and why has it grown rapidly . Tourism in the UK and Europe. Impacts of Tourism
Mastered	To be able to explain in detail and analyse the results of a litter survey around Astor College and say how the survey could have been improved. To be able to explain the characteristics of the 3 different types of Geography.	To be able to clearly understand scale so distances can be accurately measured on a map and use 6 figure grid references to locate places. To use Digimap software to accurately find and annotate distances to schools from your home.	To be able to explain in detail the UK's population distribution and climate characteristics. To explain in detail the advantages/disadvantages of Migration in the UK and make your own judgement on it.	To explain in detail why a part of London was regenerated and to make a judgement on who some of the winners and losers were. To have an excellent knowledge of the main physical and human features of the UK .	To explain features of the water cycle. To explain in detail how river processes create a range of river landforms focusing on a meander. To explain the causes and impacts of river floods.	To be able to explain in detail what a tourist is and why the industry has grown rapidly in the last 50 years. To explain in detail the impacts of tourism on places in the UK and Europe and how these impacts can be reduced.
Secure	To be able to describe and start to explain in detail the results of a litter survey around Astor College. To be able to describe the 3 different types of Geography,	To be able to measure simple distances accurately on a map and use 4 figure grid references to locate places. To use Digimap software to find and annotate distances to schools from your home.	To be able to describe and start to give reasons for the UK's population distribution. To describe the advantages/disadvantages of Migration in the UK.	To describe the way a part of London was regenerated and to begin to explain who some of the winners and losers were. To have a good very knowledge of the main physical and human features of the UK .	To describe features of the water cycle. To describe and start to explain how river processes create a range of river landforms focusing on a meander. To describe the causes and impacts of river floods.	To be able to describe and start to explain the different types of tourist and say why the industry has grown rapidly in the last 50 years. To describe the impacts of tourism on places in the UK and Europe and start to explain why there might be conflicts between different groups of people.
Developing	To draw bar graphs and describe briefly the results of the litter survey. To be able to sort photos into 3 different categories relating to the different types of Geography.	To understand map symbols and why they are used on maps. To locate the world's major continents and oceans from an Atlas. To describe how Digimap software can help you locate places on a map.	To make general points about the UK's population distribution and where some main physical and human features are located. To be aware that migration has some advantages/disadvantages to the UK.	To briefly say how a part of London was regenerated and to begin to describe who some of the winners and losers were. To have a good knowledge of the main physical and human features of the UK .	To know some features of the water cycle. To know the difference between erosion and deposition. To know the main features of a meander. To know the difference between human and physical causes of a river flood.	To be able to describe the different types of tourist and give three reasons the industry has grown rapidly in the last 50 years. To describe the impacts of tourism on places in the UK and Europe and describe conflicts between different groups of people.
Emerging	To be able to collect data on the amount of litter around Astor College. To know that Geography can be split into 3 different types.	To know why we use maps. To match map symbols to their meaning. To identify physical and human features on a map.	To know some parts of Britain are more crowded than others. To be able to identify several famous British landmarks. To know that migration is the movement of people between countries and is happening in the UK.	To identify from photographs 3 ways a part of London was regenerated and to list why this was good for the area. To have some knowledge of the main physical and human features of the UK .	To know the three main parts of the water cycle. To know how rivers shape the land. To be able to label a meander. To know one human and one physical cause of a river flood.	To be able to list different types of tourist and give two reasons the industry has grown rapidly in the last 50 years. To list the impacts of tourism on places in the UK and Europe and highlight groups of people who will be in conflict.
Keywords
Resource Links						