

Organisation	What it does	How can it help
	The National Careers Service is the number one careers resource in the UK. It offers resources, support, guidance, and impartial advice to people of all ages and is completely free!	Search for different job roles to find out what the job is like, what qualifications you need and what salary you will earn.
	The National Citizen Service is a fantastic opportunity for students aged 15-17. The scheme offers students the opportunity to spend their summer, autumn, or spring holidays taking part in adventure weeks with their friends. This is a really popular scheme and well worth a look.	To take on an amazing opportunity to develop new skills, see new places, meet new people, and add something very impressive to your CV.
	The Hospitality Guild offers information on the types of careers you can have in hospitality. It also provides useful resources such as hints and tips from experts and opportunities to search for current vacancies.	You can use it to explore the different fields and careers open to you in the field of hospitality, find out more about what is involved, and even find current job opportunities.
	Careers World is a great resource for anyone who wants to plan their next steps. It provides information on jobs, job sectors, current opportunities, and courses.	You can use it to learn more about the opportunities that are out there, the jobs that could be right for you, or even apply for a vacancy. icould is a really useful way to find out about the jobs people do by listening to their experiences. The website features interviews and short videos with people from a range of jobs and one 5 minute video could tell you something about your own future.

Take the buzz test on icould.com to find out your personality animal type and the career areas that would suit you. Are you a dolphin or a teddy bear!?

Like icould, Careers Box provides you with video insights into people's roles and careers

Use it alongside icould to find out what people like about their jobs and what you might like or dislike in future.

Bright Knowledge has been set up by the brilliant Brightside group to provide you with information about different careers, job sectors, and opportunities.

Use it to learn more about the opportunities that are out there. It's possible that the perfect job for you is out there but you don't know that it exists; websites like Bright Knowledge can help you to discover it.

Career Camel is an easy to use, free resource to help you to explore the options open to you in future.

Just follow the steps and the guidance of the ever-smiling animated camel to take the next step towards understanding your plans for the future.

National website advertising all apprenticeship vacancies across the country.

Search for vacancies based on location and skill area, create an account and apply.

Ready To Work Kent is a website designed for young people who don't want to go to Sixth Form or college, but who are unsure about what other options are available to them. It advertises training and employability programmes suitable for young people aged 16+.

Search and apply for training and employability programmes in your area.

It's not just young people who worry about their future careers; parents can be just as worried about their children's futures as they are! Websites like Careers Advice For Parents aim to provide parents with information and support so that both students and parents alike can focus on future options.

Parents and guardians can use this website to gain a better understanding of the options available to students and the ways in which they can support their children.

Like Careers Advice For Parents above, Parental Guidance aims to help parents to understand the options available to young people.

Parents and guardians can use Parental Guidance alongside other resources like Careers Advice For Parents to better understand the options available to young people.

Young Enterprise provides opportunities for ambitious young people to develop their ideas and abilities through challenges and information.

Use it to find opportunities to show off your skills or build on your ideas!

Young Start Up Talent is an incredible opportunity for young people aged 16-25 to build on their ideas in business. Your idea can be in any sector or area and the scheme offers you the opportunity to take part in their competition and win £50,000 of funding and support to launch your business

Use it to take a chance on your ideas and to try for the opportunity of a lifetime.

Plotr is a hugely popular resource. It is designed to help you to plot your journey to your career and to explore new areas of work and study.

Use it to find out more about different jobs and careers and to begin planning your future.

Kent Choices 4 U is the central place for information on courses and apprenticeships within Kent.

Use this website in Year 11 to make your post-16 applications online, track their progress and accept offers. Other year groups may use this site to gain an understanding of the types of courses that will be available to them at post-16.

Adzuna brings together millions of job adverts from thousands of websites, with powerful search options to make job hunting easier.

Explore where jobs are in your local area, and use the Value My CV tool to make sure your CV is optimised.